Airport & Travel

Vocabulary, useful phrases, grammar, writing and conversation practice

Level A2-B1 · 45-60 min · Lesson 01

LESSON GOAL

By the end of this lesson, you should be able to move through an airport, ask for help, explain common travel problems, and write a short description of your travel day.

Use the vocabulary first, then complete the writing activities. Finish by opening the Conversation Lab and practicing the role-plays out loud.

Study tip

Do not try to memorize isolated words. Learn each word together with a phrase you can actually say: “check in for a flight”, “go through security”, “miss a connection”.

VOCABULARY 02

despachar / deixar a mala

go through security

passar pela segurança

show your passport

mostrar o passaporte

board the plane

embarcar no avião

estar atrasado

be canceled

ser cancelado

land on time

pousar no horário

take off

decolar

Pattern to notice

We say “go through security”, not “pass in the security”. We say “board the plane” or “get on the plane”, not “enter in the airplane”.

Quick practice

Complete: I arrived late and almost _____ my flight.

Complete: After check-in, we had to _____ security.

Complete: Our flight was _____ by two hours.

Write one sentence with “have a layover”.

USEFUL LANGUAGE

Phrases you can use immediately

Focus on short, reusable sentences. The goal is to speak clearly, not to sound complicated.

At check-in

- I'd like to check in for flight 482 to New York.
- I have one bag to check and one carry-on.
- Could I have an aisle seat, please?
- Is my baggage checked through to my final destination?

At security

- Do I need to take my laptop out?
- Should I remove my shoes?
- Is this liquid allowed in my carry-on?
- Where should I put my jacket?

At the gate

- Has boarding started yet?
- Is this the line for group three?
- Has the gate changed?
- How long is the delay?

When there is a problem

- I think I missed my connection.
- My bag did not arrive.
- What are my options?
- Could you help me find another flight?

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Polite requests and travel obligations

Two structures make airport English much easier: polite requests and expressions of necessity.

POLITE REQUESTSCan I + verb?

Can I change my seat?

Could I + verb?

Could I have a window seat?

Could you + verb?

Could you check this bag for me?

I'd like to + verb

I'd like to check in.

OBLIGATION / NECESSITYhave to

You have to show your passport.

need to

You need to arrive early.

don't have to

You don't have to print the ticket.

should

You should check the gate number.

Politeness level

“Could I...?” and “Could you...?” usually sound more polite than “Can I...?” in service situations. “I'd like...” is a very natural way to state what you want.

Mini practice

Rewrite politely: Give me a window seat. → _____

Complete: Do I _____ to remove my laptop from the bag?

Complete: You _____ check the gate before boarding.

Write one sentence with “don't have to”.

MODEL DIALOGUE

At the check-in counter

Read once for meaning. Then read again and notice the phrases you can reuse in a different trip.

AGENT Good morning. Where are you flying today?

TRAVELER I'm flying to New York on flight 482.

AGENT May I see your passport, please?

TRAVELER Sure. Here you are.

AGENT Are you checking any bags?

TRAVELER Yes, one suitcase. I also have this backpack as my carry-on.

AGENT Would you prefer a window or an aisle seat?

TRAVELER Could I have an aisle seat, please?

AGENT Of course. Your gate is B18. Boarding starts at 7:55.

TRAVELER Great. Is my suitcase checked through to New York?

AGENT Yes, it is. Have a good flight.

TRAVELER Thank you.

Language to steal

“Where are you flying today?”, “Are you checking any bags?”, “Could I have...?”, and “Is my suitcase checked through...?” are reusable patterns. Replace only the destination, baggage, or seat.

Comprehension

1. Where is the traveler going?
2. How many bags will be checked?
3. Which seat does the traveler choose?
4. What time does boarding start?

WRITING PRACTICE 01

Build accurate sentences

Translate first, then compare your choices with the answer key at the end. Try to use the exact vocabulary from this lesson.

1. Eu gostaria de fazer o check-in para o voo 482.
2. Eu tenho uma mala para despachar e uma bagagem de mão.
3. Eu poderia ficar com um assento no corredor?
4. Nós precisamos passar pela segurança agora.
5. O portão de embarque mudou?
6. Nosso voo está atrasado em uma hora.
7. Eu perdi minha conexão para Chicago.
8. Minha mala não chegou.
9. Quais são as minhas opções?
10. Você poderia me ajudar a encontrar outro voo?

WRITING PRACTICE 02

Write about a travel day

Now combine the vocabulary into a short paragraph. This is the step that prepares you for real conversation.

Task: Write 80-120 words about a trip you took or an imaginary trip. Describe what happened from the moment you arrived at the airport until you boarded the plane.

Try to include at least 6 of these:

- check in
- boarding pass
- carry-on bag
- go through security
- gate
- boarding
- delayed
- aisle/window seat
- miss a connection
- take off

Useful structure

First, I arrived at... / Then, I... / After that, I... / Unfortunately,... / Finally, I...

Self-check before you finish

- ☐ Did I use the past tense consistently?
- ☐ Did I use at least 6 target words?
- ☐ Did I write complete sentences?
- ☐ Did I connect ideas with first / then / after that / finally?

CONVERSATION PRACTICE

Role-plays for the AI coach

Open the Conversation Lab after completing the writing pages. Ask the AI to stay in character and correct you only after each role-play.

Role-play 1 · Check-in

Role-play 2 · Delayed flight

Your flight is delayed by three hours and you have a short connection. Ask an airline employee what your options are.

Role-play 3 · Missing baggage

You arrived at your destination, but your suitcase did not. Describe the bag and ask what you need to do next.

Conversation questions

- Do you prefer window or aisle seats? Why?
- How early do you usually arrive at the airport?
- What makes a flight comfortable for you?
- What would you do if you missed an international connection?
