Hotel Stay & Check-in

Vocabulary, useful phrases, grammar, writing and conversation practice

Level A2-B1 · 45-60 min · Lesson 02

LESSON GOAL

By the end of this lesson, you should be able to check into a hotel, ask about services, request what you need, explain common room problems, and write a short review of your stay.

Learn the vocabulary first, then practice the functional phrases and writing tasks. Finish by opening the Conversation Lab and acting out the hotel situations.

Study tip

Learn complete expressions instead of isolated words: “make a reservation”, “check into a hotel”, “ask for late checkout”, “report a problem”. These chunks are easier to use in real conversation.

Warm-up

1. What is the best hotel you have ever stayed in?
2. What are the three most important things you want in a hotel room?
3. Do you usually book hotels online or through another method?
4. Have you ever had a problem with a hotel room? What happened?

Before you continue

Answer the four questions in English with short sentences. You will reuse these ideas in the writing and speaking sections later.

VOCABULARY 01

Core hotel vocabulary

These words cover the most common parts of a hotel stay, from arrival and check-in to services and checkout.

WORD / PHRASE	MEANING	EXAMPLE
reservation	reserva	I have a reservation under the name Cunali.
front desk / reception	recepção	Please ask at the front desk.
key card	cartão-chave	My key card is not working.
single room	quarto de solteiro	I booked a single room for one night.
double room	quarto de casal / duplo	We need a double room for two people.
check-in	entrada / registro	Check-in starts at 2 p.m.
checkout	saída do hotel	What time is checkout?
deposit	depósito / caução	Is there a security deposit?
amenities	comodidades	What amenities are included?
housekeeping	serviço de limpeza	Could you call housekeeping?
towel	toalha	Could I have two extra towels?
blanket	cobertor	I need an extra blanket.
air conditioning	ar-condicionado	The air conditioning is not working.
Wi-Fi password	senha do Wi-Fi	What is the Wi-Fi password?
bill	conta	Could I see the bill, please?
receipt	recibo	Could you email me the receipt?

VOCABULARY 02

Hotel verbs and collocations

These combinations sound natural and are much more useful than memorizing the verb and noun separately.

make a reservation

fazer uma reserva

book a room

reservar um quarto

check into a hotel

fazer check-in no hotel

fill out a form

preencher um formulário

show your ID

mostrar documento

pay a deposit

pagar um depósito

ask for late checkout

pedir checkout tardio

call the front desk

ligar para a recepção

request extra towels

pedir toalhas extras

change rooms

trocar de quarto

report a problem

relatar um problema

fix the air conditioning

consertar o ar-condicionado

clean the room

limpar o quarto

order room service

pedir serviço de quarto

store your luggage

guardar a bagagem

check out of the hotel

fazer checkout do hotel

Pattern to notice

We usually say “make a reservation” or “book a room”, not “do a reservation”. We also say “check into a hotel” when arriving and “check out of a hotel” when leaving.

Quick practice

Complete: I need to _____ a room for two nights.

Complete: Could I _____ late checkout?

Complete: The shower is broken, so I need to _____ a problem.

Write one sentence with “order room service”.

USEFUL LANGUAGE

Phrases you can use immediately

Use short, polite sentences. In a hotel, clarity and politeness are more important than complicated grammar.

At check-in

- I have a reservation under the name Cunali.
- I booked a double room for three nights.
- Is breakfast included in the rate?
- What time is checkout?

Asking about the hotel

- What is the Wi-Fi password?
- What time does breakfast start?
- Is there a gym or a swimming pool?
- Could you store my luggage after checkout?

Requesting something

- Could I have two extra towels, please?
- Could you send an extra blanket to my room?
- Could I get a late checkout?
- Could you call a taxi for me?

Reporting a problem

- There is a problem with the air conditioning.
- The shower is not working properly.
- My key card does not work.
- Could someone come and take a look?

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Describing problems and making polite requests

Three simple patterns cover most hotel situations: “There is...”, “...is not working”, and “Could you...?”

DESCRIBING A PROBLEMThere is a problem with...

There is a problem with the shower.

...does not work

The key card does not work.

...is not working

The air conditioning is not working.

There is no...

There is no hot water in my room.

POLITE REQUESTSCould I have + noun?

Could I have an extra towel?

Could you + verb?

Could you send someone up?

I'd like to + verb

I'd like to change rooms.

Would it be possible to...?

Would it be possible to check out later?

Natural English

“The air conditioning is not working” describes a problem happening now. “The air conditioning does not work” is also correct and sounds slightly more general. Both are useful in hotel situations.

Mini practice

Rewrite politely: Send me two towels. → _____

Complete: There _____ no hot water in my room.

Complete: My key card _____ not working.

Write a polite request for late checkout.

MODEL DIALOGUE

Checking in at a hotel

Read once for meaning, then read again and notice the reusable patterns for reservations, services, and room information.

RECEPTIONIST Good evening. Welcome to the Riverside Hotel. How can I help you?

GUEST Hi. I have a reservation under the name Cunali.

RECEPTIONIST Certainly. May I see your passport or ID, please?

GUEST Of course. Here you are.

RECEPTIONIST You booked a double room for three nights, correct?

GUEST Yes. Is breakfast included?

RECEPTIONIST Yes, breakfast is served from 6:30 to 10:00 on the second floor.

GUEST Great. What is the Wi-Fi password?

RECEPTIONIST It is printed on your key-card holder. Your room is 512, on the fifth floor.

GUEST Thanks. Would it be possible to get a late checkout on Friday?

RECEPTIONIST Please call the front desk tomorrow morning and we will check availability.

GUEST Perfect. Thank you very much.

Language to steal

“I have a reservation under the name...”, “Is ... included?”, “What is the Wi-Fi password?”, and “Would it be possible to...?” are highly reusable hotel patterns.

Comprehension

1. How many nights is the guest staying?
2. Is breakfast included?
3. Where is the room?
4. What does the guest ask about Friday?

WRITING PRACTICE 01

Build accurate sentences

Translate the sentences into English using the vocabulary and structures from this lesson.

1. Eu tenho uma reserva no nome Cunali.
2. Eu reservei um quarto de casal por três noites.
3. O café da manhã está incluído?
4. Qual é a senha do Wi-Fi?
5. Eu poderia ter duas toalhas extras, por favor?
6. Há um problema com o ar-condicionado.
7. O meu cartão-chave não está funcionando.
8. Não há água quente no meu quarto.
9. Eu gostaria de trocar de quarto.
10. Seria possível fazer o checkout mais tarde?

WRITING PRACTICE 02

Write a short hotel review

Combine the vocabulary into a short, realistic text. Imagine you are reviewing a hotel after a two-night stay.

Task: Write 80-120 words about a hotel stay. Mention the check-in experience, the room, at least one amenity, one positive point, and one problem or suggestion.

Try to include at least 6 of these:

- reservation
- front desk
- key card
- breakfast included
- Wi-Fi
- housekeeping
- air conditioning
- extra towels
- late checkout
- check out

Useful structure

I stayed at... / Check-in was... / The room was... / I liked... / However, there was a problem with... / Overall, I would...

Self-check before you finish

- ☐ Did I use complete sentences?
- ☐ Did I include at least 6 target words?
- ☐ Did I explain both a positive point and a problem?
- ☐ Did I connect ideas with but / however / because / overall?

CONVERSATION PRACTICE

Role-plays for the AI coach

Open the Conversation Lab and ask the AI to stay in character. Complete each situation before asking for corrections.

Role-play 1 · Hotel check-in

You arrive at a hotel in London. You have a reservation for three nights. Confirm breakfast, ask for the Wi-Fi password, and ask what time checkout is.

Role-play 2 · Room problem

The air conditioning and key card are not working. Call the front desk, explain both problems, and ask when someone can come to help.

Role-play 3 · Extra request

You need two extra towels and would like a late checkout tomorrow. Ask politely and respond if the hotel says late checkout depends on availability.

Conversation questions

- What makes a hotel feel comfortable to you?
- Which hotel service do you use most often?
- Would you rather stay in a hotel or an apartment when traveling? Why?
- What would make you ask to change rooms?
- What is the most important question to ask at check-in?

REVIEW

Mini test

Complete this without looking back. Check what is already automatic and what still needs another review.

1. Translate: recepção = _____
2. Translate: cartão-chave = _____
3. Complete: I have a reservation _____ the name Cunali.
4. Complete: Could I _____ two extra towels?
5. Complete: There _____ no hot water in my room.
6. Choose: “Could you / You need to” send someone up, please?
7. Rewrite politely: “Change my room.”
8. Complete: The air conditioning is not _____.
9. What is the difference between check-in and checkout?
10. Write one sentence with “amenities”.
11. Write one sentence with “housekeeping”.
12. Translate: “O café da manhã está incluído?”
13. Translate: “Meu cartão-chave não funciona.”
14. Write a question about the Wi-Fi.
15. Write a polite request for late checkout.
