Shopping & Clothing

Vocabulary, useful phrases, grammar, writing and conversation practice

Level A2-B1 · 45-60 min · Lesson 04

LESSON GOAL

By the end of this lesson, you should be able to ask for clothes and sizes, describe fit and style, compare options, try items on, ask about prices and discounts, pay at the checkout, and handle a simple exchange or return.

Learn the vocabulary first, then practise the functional phrases and writing tasks. Finish by opening the Conversation Lab and acting out the shopping situations.

Study tip

Learn shopping English in chunks: “try it on”, “look for a size”, “pay by card”, “exchange an item”. Complete expressions are much easier to retrieve during a real conversation.

Before you continue

Vocabulary habit

When you learn a clothing word, connect it to a useful sentence: “This is too tight”, “Do you have a medium?”, “Can I try this on?”

VOCABULARY 02

Natural combinations

These combinations are more useful than isolated words because they match the phrases people actually use while shopping.

look for a jacket - search for a jacket in a store

try something on - put clothes on to check the fit

wear a medium - use medium as your usual size

fit well - be the correct size and shape

be too tight - feel smaller than comfortable

be too loose - feel larger than comfortable

go with something - match another item of clothing

be on sale - have a reduced promotional price

ask for a discount - request a lower price

pay by card - use a debit or credit card

keep the receipt - save proof of purchase

return an item - take a product back to the store

exchange an item - replace a product with another one

Notice

For clothes, “fit” describes size and shape: “The jacket fits me.” “Match” describes how two things look together: “These shoes match the trousers.”

Quick practice

Complete: try this _____.

Complete: these jeans fit _____.

Complete: the shoes are _____ sale.

Write one sentence with “return an item”.

USEFUL LANGUAGE

Phrases you can actually use

Organise the phrases by moment: asking for help, finding a size, trying clothes on, checking the price, paying, and returning an item.

- Excuse me, could you help me?
- I am looking for a black jacket.
- Do you have this in another colour?

SIZE & FIT

- Is there any discount on this item?
- What is the final price?

PAYING & RETURNS

- Can I pay by card?
- Could I have the receipt, please?
- I would like to exchange this.
- Can I get a refund?

GRAMMAR

Shopping descriptions: this / these + too / enough

These small structures help you point to items and explain why something does or does not work for you.

PATTERN	EXAMPLE	USE
this + singular	Do you have this shirt in blue?	one item
these + plural	How much are these shoes?	more than one / plural item
too + adjective	This jacket is too expensive.	more than you want or need not + adjective + enough	These jeans are not loose enough.	less than the required amount adjective + enough	This coat is warm enough for winter.	sufficient amount

Natural English

“This is small” is only a description. “This is too small” means the size is a problem. “This is big enough” means the size is sufficient.

Mini practice

Choose: How much is this / these jacket?

Choose: How much are this / these shoes?

Complete: This sweater is _____ tight.

Complete: These trousers are not long _____.

- fitting room
- try on
- fit
- tight / loose
- on sale
- discount

- ☐ Did I include at least 6 target words?
- ☐ Did I describe size, fit or colour?
- ☐ Did I connect ideas with but / because / so / in the end?

CONVERSATION PRACTICE

Role-plays for the AI coach

Open the Conversation Lab and ask the AI to stay in character. Complete each situation before asking for corrections.

Role-play 1 · Finding the right item

Role-play 2 · Trying and buying

Try on a pair of jeans. Explain that the first pair is too tight, ask for a larger size, ask the price, check whether it is on sale, and pay by card.

Role-play 3 · Exchange or return

You bought a shirt yesterday, but it does not fit. Explain the problem, show that you have the receipt, and ask whether you can exchange it for another size or get a refund.
